Counsel for the petitioner states that issuance of notice under Section 29 of the State Financial Corporation Act, 1951, Annexure P-20, is not justified as the petitioner had already paid the amount in excess to the respondent-Corporation. It has also been stated that benefit of 'One Time Settlement' Scheme, despite request made in that regard, has not been extended to the petitioner.

Be that as it may, no case is made out for interference at this stage. Disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to file a detailed representation, stating its grievance to respondent No.3, who shall decide the same before January 26,2007.
